INSTRUCTIONS

Follow conference or league instructions that indicate the official or observer responsible for completing this report after each game. Use ballpoint pen on hard surface so all copies are legible. Distribute to teams and conference office as per instruction from individual conferences.

Part I: Fouls requiring total number called. Record the total number of fouls called in each category. DO NOT duplicate if foul is called by more than one official. DO NOT include the calling official.

Part II: Fouls requiring the position of the calling official and the number of the offender. Record fouls in each category indicating the position of the official calling the foul and the number of the player committing the foul. Indicate the official by the use of the R-U-HL-LJ-FJ-SJ-BJ preceding the number of the offender.

When recording the following play situations, record them in the blank space in the left column of Part II.

- A. PATs advanced by Team B.
- B. PATs advanced for a 2-point touchdown.
- C. Blood timeouts.
- D. Any fouls not listed under Parts I and II (e.g., second forward pass, etc.).

Submit a supplemental report in detail if any circumstances occur of which the conference office should be aware.

NOTES: Report a foul that caused disqualification in the proper space and mark it with a star (); in addition, enter the same information under "Disqualifications."
