

AGENDA

National Collegiate Athletic Association
Committee on Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct

Renaissance
Tampa, Florida

November 8-9, 2004

1. Welcome and announcements.
 - New committee members.
 - (1) Kelly Cyr – Division II SAAC representative.
 - (2) Michael Piscetelli – Division I SAAC representative.
 - (3) Lori Ebihara – Division I-A representative.
 - (4) Ron Loghry - Division I-AA.
2. Approval of new mission statement. {Supplement No. 1}
3. Approval of minutes from the June 2004 meeting. [Supplement No. 2]
4. Committee roster. [Supplement No. 3]
5. Divisional reports.
 - a. Division II Management Council report.
 - b. Division III Management Council report.
 - c. Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet.
6. Gambling reports and discussion.
 - a. Educational items.

- b. PSA update.
 - c. Sports. Wagering Study- Associated Health Risks.
 - d. Sports Wagering Study- Task Force Subcommittee report.
 - e. Wristband Day – October 30.
 - f. NCAA Convention.
 - g. AFCA Convention.
7. 2005 Convention update.
- * “Creating a Collegial Environment” session.
8. CTSA update. [Supplement No. 4]
9. Sportsmanship slogan update.
10. Coca-Cola All-Americans. [Supplement No. 5]
11. Sportsmanship Award update.
- a. Male co-winners: Danny Gathings: High Point University and Mesa State Football Team; Mesa State College.
 - b. Female Winner: Chanda Gunn; Northeastern University.
12. Monday Morning Football.
13. NCAA Strategic Planning exercise, Objective 2.3.2. [Supplement No. 6]

14. Selected newspaper articles.
 - a. Conduct Fouls. [Supplement No.7]
 - b. The Diamondback – “You Suck” song gone for hoops. [Supplement No. 8]
 - c. Good Ideas Track Bad Behavior. [Supplement No. 9]
 - d. Division III Conduct Foul Report. [Supplement No. 10]
 - e. Bad Conduct, By the Numbers. – Chuck Mitrano. [Supplement No. 11]

15. Adjournment.