Supplement No. 21 -- July 2005 Management Council -- Governance Structure Legislation

Title: INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL -- SELF-STUDY REPORT -- FAILURE TO SUBMIT

Supplement Proposal Number: PC-1

Convention Year: 2006

Date Submitted: April 22, 2005

Status: Ready for Consideration by Management Council

Topical Area: Institutional Control

Intent: To specify that a member institution that fails to meet the Institutional Self-Study Guide (ISSG) deadline shall be placed on probation, restricted status and corresponding membership on repeated failures of submission; further, to specify that the Management Council on recommendation from the Membership Committee, may waive the deadline if an institution demonstrates extenuating circumstances warrant such relief.

Constitution: Amend 6.3.1 by adding new 6.3.1.2, page 44, as follows:

"6.3.1 Self-Study Report. Institutions shall conduct a comprehensive self-study and evaluation of their intercollegiate athletics programs at least once every five years, using the Institutional Self-Study Guide (ISSG). The report of the self-study and supporting documentation shall be available for examination on request by an authorized representative of the Association. Subjects covered by the self-study shall include:

[6.3.1-(a) through 6.3.1-(k) unchanged.]

[6.3.1.1 unchanged.]

"6.3.1.2 Failure to Comply with the Institutional Self-Study Guide Deadline. If an institution fails to meet the Institutional Self-Study Guide (ISSG) deadline, its entire program (both men's and women's sports) shall be placed on probation for one year beginning in the next academic year after the missed deadline. An institution shall be afforded this one-year probationary period for failure to comply with the deadline only once in a 10-year period. The 10-year period shall begin September 1 following the completion of the academic year in which the ISSG deadline is not met.

"6.3.1.2.1 Application of Restricted Membership Status. If an institution fails to complete the ISSG at the end of the probationary year or is ineligible for the once-in-10-year probationary period, it shall be placed in restricted membership per Constitution 3.02.3.1.2.2. If the institution still does not complete the ISSG at the end of that year, it shall be reclassified as a corresponding member.
